

Austin Viramontes

Director of Sales & Estimating

BIO

Austin is a veteran of the United States Air Force with 17 years of high-risk mitigation/operations experience derived from a combination of active duty military service, civil service, and Department of Defense / inter-agency contracting. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business/Small Business and Entrepreneurship from the University of Phoenix in 2013. Austin is responsible for the development, application, and sustainability of best production methods for the Sales and Estimating Departments. He is committed to continuous improvement and ensures that all contractual and/or corporate policies and guidelines are followed.

There's more to demolition than just tearing things apart. We understand the technical aspects involved in the process based on our extensive experience, and look to mitigate potential exposures proactively. Every demolition job involves problem solving, and we take great pride in our ability to complete multifaceted projects in a safe and efficient manner.
